

The Daddy Difference

Quotes to Remember for Fathers of Daughters

"I cannot think of any need in childhood as strong as the need for a father's protection." -- Sigmund Freud

"He didn't tell me how to live; he lived, and let me watch him do it." --Clarence Budington Kelland

"Watching your daughter being collected by her date feels like handing over a million dollar Stradivarius to a gorilla." --Jim Bishop

"My son and daughter tell me where they are in very different ways. I know where my son is because I hear him. I know where my daughter is because she tells me." --Anonymous

"It is admirable for a man to take his son fishing, but there is a special place in heaven for the father who takes his daughter shopping." --John Sinor

"If the new American father feels bewildered and even defeated, let him take comfort from the fact that whatever he does in any fathering situation has a fifty percent chance of being right." --Bill Cosby

"He that would the daughter win, must with the mother first begin." --English Proverb

"There's something like a line of gold thread running through a man's words when he talks to his daughter, and gradually over the years it gets to be long enough for you to pick up in your hands and weave into a cloth that feels like love itself." --John Gregory Brown

"Fathers, like mothers, are not born. Men grow into fathers - and fathering is a very important stage in their development."

"Daughters are like flowers, they fill the world with beauty and sometimes attract pests." -- Author Unknown
