

The Daddy Difference

Traits of a Loving Father

1. He loves unconditionally and without fail.
2. He allows his children to make mistakes and offers guidance, not criticism.
3. He is supportive and affirming.
4. He admits his own mistakes and models how to make amends and correct the course.
5. He is loyal and trustworthy.
6. He is verbally and physically affectionate.
7. He allows his children to be different from him and honors the diversity.
8. He sets boundaries with his children and addresses inappropriate behavior.
9. He spends quality time with each of his children where they are the center of his universe.
10. He leads by example, modeling how children should treat others and expect to be treated.
11. He protects his children and family at all costs.
12. His relationship with his wife is a priority and he treats her with love and respect.